13. ACCEPTANCE OF RULES AND REGULATIONS:

EFI Center is a place of learning. These rules and procedures enable the teaching community to exercise their rights and duties. Respect for others starts with tolerance, politeness and rejects all physical or emotional abuse. Respecting living conditions, common and personal property, apply to all the school. All staff, not just teachers, are entitled to intervene if students contravene the rules and procedures of the school. The Rules and Procedures help develop self-discipline by teaching responsibility. Finally, they allow an environment of trust and cooperation necessary for education and communication between all parties: staff, parents and students.

The Rules and Procedures apply to all students.

Registration at the EFI Center means acceptance of these rules and fundamental principles on which they are based. This file will be validated by the school upon receipt of the payment of registration fees.
